Break The Gridlock Show And Tell

February 8th, 2008

Bloom Inn, 2418 W Bloomingdale
7pm - midnight

Break The Gridlock will host a Show And Tell event on February 8th. The purpose of the event is to allow people interested in the promotion of "Appropriate Transportation"* to come together and share ideas, show off what they're doing, and generally find out what's going on in our community.

The show is Free and no RSVP is required. Refreshments will be provided. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

All Show And Tell presenters will be make short presentations on various topics followed by short Q & A period. At the end of all scheduled presentations, anyone in attendance will be invited to speak.

Tentative schedule includes:

- West Town Bikes
- PARKing Day
- Working Bikes
- local depaving efforts
- The Auto Show Shutdown (happening the next day!)
- Others working for a better Chicago

Details and last minute updates at:
`http://BreakTheGridlock.org/showandtell2008`
For more info, or to sign up to give a presentation, please email info@breakthegridlock.org or phone call Todd @ 773-220-4134

* Why "Appropriate Transportation"? For too long have we used the term "alternative transportation" to describe our for a more sane culture of transportation for Chicago. This unfairly casts our ideas to the fringe, when in fact we're trying to make the city better for everyone, hence “appropriate”.

Break The Gridlock is a non-profit organization dedicated to the support of Chicagoland grass roots groups working to promote Appropriate Transportation

Break The Gridlock Show And Tell

February 8th, 2008

Bloom Inn, 2418 W Bloomingdale
7pm - midnight

Break The Gridlock will host a Show And Tell event on February 8th. The purpose of the event is to allow people interested in the promotion of "Appropriate Transportation"* to come together and share ideas, show off what they're doing, and generally find out what's going on in our community.

The show is Free and no RSVP is required. Refreshments will be provided. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

All Show And Tell presenters will be make short presentations on various topics followed by short Q & A period. At the end of all scheduled presentations, anyone in attendance will be invited to speak.

Tentative schedule includes:

- West Town Bikes
- PARKing Day
- Working Bikes
- local depaving efforts
- The Auto Show Shutdown (happening the next day!)
- Others working for a better Chicago

Details and last minute updates at:
`http://BreakTheGridlock.org/showandtell2008`
For more info, or to sign up to give a presentation, please email info@breakthegridlock.org or phone call Todd @ 773-220-4134

* Why "Appropriate Transportation"? For too long have we used the term "alternative transportation" to describe our for a more sane culture of transportation for Chicago. This unfairly casts our ideas to the fringe, when in fact we're trying to make the city better for everyone, hence “appropriate”.

Break The Gridlock is a non-profit organization dedicated to the support of Chicagoland grass roots groups working to promote Appropriate Transportation