

Free workshop for new bicycle commuters!

Have you just taken up bicycle commuting, or are you contemplating the switch?

Come enjoy a one-hour workshop in a casual outdoor setting, in which experienced cyclists will present you with the basic knowledge you need to be safe and successful, and help identify resources for ongoing success.

The workshop will be held Tuesday September 30, 2008 at 2:00 P.M. at Northeastern Illinois University, 5500 N. St. Louis Ave.
University Commons (south of student union)

Presented by breakthegridlock.org "Summer School" in conjunction with the first annual NEIU Green Week
