

Free workshop series for new bicycle commuters!

Summer School breakthegridlock.org

Have you just taken up bicycle commuting, or are you contemplating the switch?

Come enjoy a one-hour workshop in a casual setting, in which experienced cyclists will present you with the basic knowledge you need to be safe and successful, and help identify resources for ongoing success.

The next workshop will be held Sunday, June 29 2008
at 5 P.M. at the Mercury Café, 1505 W. Chicago Ave.

For further dates and venues, and to RSVP:
Web: www.breakthegridlock.org Phone: 773/710-4143
E-mail: summerschool@bikechicago.info

Break the Gridlock is an all-volunteer, grass-roots organization aimed at helping Chicago become a safer, cleaner city by reducing its dependence on the personal automobile